Attachments

Please include the following attachments with your completed application form:

- Cover Letter. Include how you learned about the Ford Motor Company International Fellowship of the 92nd Street Y.
- Resume or Curriculum Vitae
- Two-page Essay. In narrative form, describe your background and your reasons for wanting to participate in this program. Also, describe in detail issues affecting the well-being and stability of your community. (Examples include inter-group conflict, community health concerns, youth development, and environmental matters.) Then answer the following questions: What outcome do you hope for? What role do you wish to play in that outcome? What skills do you feel you need to make the desired outcome happen?
- Two Reference Letters. Letters should be written by professional or academic references. They may be enclosed with your application in envelopes sealed and signed across the seals by your references or sent separately and privately by your references. (For more information, please see the “References” section on the previous page.)

Deadline for Submission

APPLICATIONS MUST BE EMAILED OR POSTMARKED BY June 30, 2011.

You will be notified of receipt of your application, and you will be apprised of the status of your application by December 31, 2011.

This program is a rigorous learning opportunity. It requires completion of reading, writing, and group assignments prior to and following the residency, full participation in all classes and group activities while in New York, and a commitment to remain involved in the program's future as we build a growing network of community leaders throughout the world.

Submit your completed application along with all required attachments to:
